EIGHTH LEGISLATURE.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

FIRST DAY, January 4. Council called to order at 12 m. by W. J. Osborn, assistant secretary of preceding council. Prayer by Rev. F. O. Barstow. Roll called and found present P. R. Brady, S. R. DeLong and Wm. Zeckendorf from Pima county; King S. Woolsey from Maricopa; J. G. Campbell, L. A. Stevens and J. P. Hargrave from Yavapai; A. E. Davis from Mohave, and J. M. Redondo from Yuma. Mr. Hargrave was chosen temporary president and W. J. Osborn temporary secretary. Messrs. Davis, DeLong and Campbell were appointed committee on credentials, who reported all above named as entitled to seats. Report adopted. Took recess to 3 p. m.

Three o'clock p. m. All members present. Messrs. Stevens and Woolsey were appointed a committee to wait on Chief Justice Dunne and invite him to administer oath to members, and soon returned with Judge Dunne who administered the oath to all members.

The permanent election of officers then came up, resulting in the choice, by acclamation, of Mr. Woolsey president, who was conducted to his seat by Messrs. Davis and Redondo, and took the oath of office administered by Chief Justice Dunne. E. S. Penwell was elected secretary and C. F. Cate assistant secretary by acclamation. W. J. Tompkins was unanimously elected sergeant-at-arms, and John Castillo door-keeper by a like vote. For enrolling clerk A. Brichia was elected by the votes of Messrs. Campbell, Davis, Hargrave, Redondo, Stevens and Mr. President, and J. H. C. Wallemath received for same position the votes of Messrs. Brady, DeLong and Zeckendorf. J. H. C. Wallemath was then unanimously chosen engrossing clerk; by like vote, Robert Frasier was unanimously chosen door-keeper. Antonio Van Alstine was chosen page by vote of 6 to 3 for Horatio Appel. Chief Justice Dunne administered oath of office to officers elect. For temporary government of council, the rules of the seventh legislative council were adopted, which were next day adopted as permanent rules. Mr. DeLong moved to elect chaplain. Lost by Ayes: DeLong, Hargrave, Redondo and Mr. President. Five other members voted Nays. Secretary was instructed to inform the house that council was fully organized. Adjourned to 10 a. m. next day.

SECOND DAY, January 5. Met as per adjournment. All present but Messrs. Brady and Davis. Standing hour for meeting was fixed at 10 a. m. House concurrent resolution received appointing Messrs. Stevens and Kelly to advise the Governor of organization and asking that one from council be appointed. Resolution adopted and Mr. Stevens appointed. Committee on credentials reported favorably to all members claiming seats. Adjourned to 1 p. m.

One o'clock p. m. All present. On Mr. Hargrave's motion, joint resolution to have proceedings printed daily, passed under suspension of rules. Chief Clerk was authorized to purchase $7 worth of postage stamps for each member; he was also ordered to have roll-calls printed. Adjourned.

THIRD DAY, January 6. Met as per adjournment. All present. Mr. Stevens reported that the Governor had been called upon, and that he would deliver his message at 11 a. m. this day in joint convention, which was thereafter done. Resolution of thanks to Chief Justice Dunne for administering oath to members, adopted, and secretary directed to furnish copy. Both houses then met in joint convention in council chamber with all members present. Governor Safford then delivered his third biennial message, after which convention dissolved. The President then announced standing committees, viz:

Military and Indian Affairs—Messrs. Redondo, Zeckendorf, Stevens.
Mines and Mining—Messrs. Davis, DeLong, Campbell.
Finance—Messrs. DeLong, Campbell, Redondo.
Agriculture—Messrs. Redondo, Stevens, Brady.
Territorial Affairs—Messrs. Davis, Hargrave, Redondo.
Judiciary—Messrs. Hargrave, Davis, Zeckendorf.
Education—Messrs. Brady, Redondo, Stevens.
Claims—Messrs. Campbell, Davis, DeLong.
Engrossed and Enrolled bills—Messrs. Stevens, Brady, Davis.
Elections—Messrs. Zeckendorf, Hargrave, Brady.
Printing—Messrs. Zeckendorf, Stevens, Davis.
Counties and County Boundaries—Messrs. Brady, Redondo, Hargrave.
Adjourned.

FOURTH DAY, January 7. Met as per adjournment. All present. One thousand copies Governor's message was ordered printed by passage concurrent resolution. Committee on joint rules reported those of preceding council, which were adopted. Secretary was authorized to purchase five copies each of CITIZEN, Miner and Sentinel, or such number of each as members may desire not exceeding fifteen in all for each member and the same number for himself on the credit of the Territory. Secretary was ordered to have printed fifty copies of standing committees. In committee of whole, the Governor's message was taken up and the several subjects of it referred to appropriate committees. Adjourned till 2 p. m.

Two o'clock p. m. All present but Mr. Zeckendorf. Joint resolution was then introduced authorizing the council committees on Judiciary, Finance and Territorial Affairs, and house committees on Judiciary, Ways and Means and Territorial Affairs, to each employ a clerk at $5 per day. After consideration laid on the table. Adjourned.

FIFTH DAY, January 8. Met as per adjournment. All present but Messrs. Redondo and Zeckendorf. After approval of yesterday's minutes, council adjourned until Monday next, at 10 a. m.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

FIRST DAY, January 4. Members were called to order at 10 a. m. by S. W. Carpenter, assistant clerk preceding house of representatives. Members present from Yavapai: C. P. Head, Hugo Richards, A. L. Moeller, Levi Bashford, W. J. O'Neil, Gibson Brooke; from Maricopa: John T. Alsap and G. H. Oury; from Yuma: H. Goldberg, Samuel Purdy, Jr., R. B. Kelly; from Mohave: S. W. Wood; from Pima: S. H. Drachman, John Montgomery, F. M. Griffin, Geo. H. Stevens, Alfonso Rickman, J. M. Eads. Messrs. Head and Kelly were appointed committee to wait upon Chief Justice Dunne and request him to administer oath to members. They soon returned with the Chief Justice who performed the duty. Mr. Oury was temporary Speaker, and S. W. Carpenter temporary clerk. J. T. Alsop was unanimously elected Speaker, and took the required oath administered by Chief Justice Dunne. Andrew Cronly was elected chief clerk and S. W. Carpenter assistant clerk—both by unanimous vote; by same vote, Joseph Phyl was elected sergeant-at-arms, Robert Plummer door-keeper; Ygnacio Ortiz was elected page by votes all but Mr. Montgomery, who voted for Antonio Van Alstine. Henry Gifford was elected watchman; C. W. Culver engrossing clerk; C. H. Naylor enrolling clerk—all three unanimously. Chief Justice Dunne then administered the oath to all officers just elected. Adjourned to 10 a. m. to-morrow.

SECOND DAY, January 5.—Met as per adjournment. All present. Clerk was ordered to advise council of complete organization of the house. By resolution, Chief Justice Dunne was thanked for administering oath to members and attaches and clerk ordered to transmit copy of resolution to the Chief Justice. Rules of the seventh house of representatives temporarily adopted, and subsequently adopted as permanent ones for this session. Five hundred roll-calls were ordered printed. By concurrent resolution, Messrs. Kelly and Stevens were appointed on part of the house to advise the Governor of complete organization of 8th legislative assembly, and its readiness to receive any communications from him. Messrs. Kelly, Oury and O'Neil were appointed to report permanent rules for the house, and subsequently reported those of seventh session, which were adopted. Mr. Purdy moved election of a chaplain, and was seconded by Mr. O'Neil. Motion lost by Ayes: Brooke, Drachman, Elias, Goldberg, Griffin, O'Neil, Purdy, Rickman, Stevens—9. Nays—Bashford, Head, Kelly, Moeller, Montgomery, Oury, Richards, Wood, Mr. Speaker—9. Adjourned.

THIRD DAY, January 6.—Met as per adjournment. All present. Mr. Kelly reported duty of committee to wait on Governor performed, and that the Governor would be pleased to meet both Houses in joint convention at 11 a. m. Resolution to ask the Secretary of the Territory to purchase $10 worth of postage stamps for each member, was amended so as to direct the Clerk to get $7 worth of stamps, and five copies each of THE CITIZEN, Miner and Sentinel, for each member, the clerks of the House, and was thus adopted. Messrs. Head and Oury were appointed on committee to prepare joint rules for government of both houses, and afterwards reported those of preceding session, and they were adopted. By resolution, the following persons were invited to seats within the bar of the joint convention: Hon. H. S. Stevens, the Judges of the Supreme and Probate Courts, Bishop Salpointe and the several ministers now in the city, all commissioned officers of the Army, all officers of the U. S. Government, the Mayor of this town, and their ladies. After the usual formal preliminary action, both branches met in joint convention, and His Excellency, Governor A. P. K. Safford, appeared and delivered his message. Immediately thereafter the House resumed session. All present. Clerk was ordered to have printed 100 copies of standing rules of the house. The Speaker then announced the appointment of the following standing committees:

Ways and Means—Head, Bashford, Wood, Goldberg, Drachman.
